Compiling this yearbook has been a task, but you only appreciate what you have to work for to attain. This yearbook represents our own creation. It comprises our ideas, our toil and our hardships. Watching this yearbook grow from one idea to a book which contains and reflects our feelings toward this school is an undefinable sensation. We, who have worked as the staff, think of it as:

"Our Own Little Happening."

Dedications

To whom do you dedicate a book? Someone said, to a friend, someone who helps all to know and find themselves. We all recognized this person's description immediately. The following are only a few of his many qualities:

DEVOTION
INITIATIVE
PERSEVERANCE
ENERGY
TOLERANCE
RELIABILITY
OPEN-MINDED

This person has worked untiringly for us throughout our four years at Bellingham High. His superb guidance will never be forgotten. Thus, it is with great pride, sincere gratitude and deep affection that we, the class of 1968, dedicate our book, The Epilogue, to Mr. DiPietro, our Guidance Director.

Those school girl days of telling tales and biting nails are gone, but in our minds we know they will still live on and on.

Now the time has come for closing books and long last looks must end. And as we leave we know that we are leaving our best friend—a friend who taught us right from wrong and weak from strong, that's a lot to learn. What can we give you in return?

If you wanted the moon we would try to make it stop!

But we would rather give our hearts—

TO SIR WITH LOVE

“Our

Sir”

ADMINISTRATION

Superintendent

Mr. Anthony C. Minichiello

A school system in a town which has grown as rapidly in as short a span of time as Bellingham needs a special type of man as its superintendent. He must possess extraordinary foresight, be a competent organizer, a watchful financier and a skilled diplomat. Such a man is Anthony C. Minichiello. A graduate of Holy Cross College, he also holds a Masters Degree in administration from Boston University. Mr. Minichiello began his education of the Bellingham school system from the ground up. He was at first a teacher in the elementary schools, later a principal of South and then Pinecrest Schools, still later an assistant superintendent until finally becoming superintendent in 1959. He is an extremely dedicated man and has a thorough knowledge of Bellingham and its schools.

Principal

Mr. Albert A. Manning

Mr. Albert A. Manning became principal of Bellingham Memorial High School at the end of the 1966-1967 school year. Previously, he had been at Scituate High School and Pilgrim High School in Warwick where he was a physics and chemistry teacher and later a vice principal. He received his Bachelors Degree from Rhode Island College and his Masters Degree in education from Brown.

The position of principal is a complicated one and the duties are endless. Mr. Manning attacks these tasks with great determination and a profound sense of purpose. Among the new programs instituted under his direction are a rotating schedule of classes, a revised marking system and a number of new courses open to the students. Mr. Manning is a dedicated administrator and devoted to the constant development and improvement of Bellingham Memorial High School.

Vice Principal

Mr. Gerard E. Frappier

Mr. Gerard E. Frappier is a paradox. No man in the high school is held with as much respect as he is because of the support and enthusiasm which he willingly and profusely gives to all worthwhile activities of the student body. Yet his role as disciplinarian at Bellingham also causes him to be viewed with a little apprehension by the students. His corrective measures are fair, however, and are given out with the best interests of the student and of the school in mind.

Mr. Frappier received his undergraduate training at Providence College, graduated with the Class of '61 and is currently working on his Masters Degree in education. He served as a social studies and history teacher on the elementary and junior high levels before his appointment as Vice Principal in 1965.

"Ho! Ho! Ho! And what would you like Santa to bring you, little girl."

The Class of '68 has sponsored a number of activities designed either to raise money for their activities during Senior Week or as expressions of goodwill to the community. Such memorable events as the car wash, distribution of food baskets to the needy in town, the sale of Christmas trees and the Christmas party for some of the grade school classes were parts of this plan. They gave the Seniors a chance to work together on projects outside the normal school routine and to have a lot of fun while still doing something useful. Much of the credit for the class's success goes to Mr. Trudeau, our beloved advisor, and the Class Officers: Dick Dupre, Anne Vandervalk, Linda Kozak and Frances Bardell. To them and to the "great class of '68", these pages are dedicated.

A FIVE ACT PLAY

Phyllis LaVoie

Act I

Scene: B.H.S.

Time : September 1964-June 1965

Dramatis Personae: Edward Fleury-President
Jeffrey Bowzer-Vice-President
Linda Kozak-Secretary
Frances Bardell-Treasurer

Inward charges the Freshman Class,
As we gaze through the looking-glass
Of times past.

There we stood: united and bold. Today the High School, tomorrow the World! Separately, we may have been defeated, but united by our leaders, we were undefiable. Of course, there were "some" embarrassing times, such as: when we locked our combinations inside of our lockers to make sure no one else would know them and then found ourselves unable to remember them; when we walked into a class late, found it to be the wrong room, and to heighten our dismay, found it full of seniors; when we leisurely walked into the wrong locker room, and rapidly ran out. Of course times were not always so tough. The Seniors honored us with the Freshmen Get Acquainted Dance. We (plus a few short Sophomores) all got in free. Our Spring dance, the social event of the season, included wine, women, song and Butch Fleury's father's motorcycle seat springs

Our first year, our Spring year, was nearing an end. It was our gayest year; our year of a new adventure. Time went on as it always does, and so the curtain fell on Act One.

Act II

Scene: B.H.S.

Time : September 1965-June 1966

Dramatis Personae: George Hachey-President
Richard Dupre-Vice-President
Linda Kozak-Secretary
Frances Bardell-Treasurer

No longer on the bottom rung;
We're Sophomores, and not as young—
Act Two's begun.

At least this time we knew our way around. But although a year older, we still did not warrant respect from the Seniors. But we were superior to those little Freshmen-the dear children who were so infantile in our eyes. The Sophomores gave the Halloween Dance, and it was a spooking success. How could it not be? But we were still "middle of the road" Sophomores, and our second year, our Summer year, was drawing to a close. And with June's arrival, the curtain fell on Act Two.

Act III

Scene: B.H.S.

Time : September 1966-June 1967

Dramatis Personae: George Hachey-President
Annemarie Vandervalk-Vice-President
Phyllis Lavoie-Secretary
Frances Bardell-Treasurer

From simple Freshmen we all came,
And now we're Juniors, near our aim
Towards fame.

For weeks after receiving our rings, all you could hear were rings tapping on desks, bouncing on floors (to make sure they were not made of tin), and people saying, "It was too big anyway"; "My baby brother ate it," etc. But most of us managed to hold on to them for a few months anyway.

And then, the impossible became possible. We actually gave our first formal, without the shedding of too much blood. You could call it the most elegant affair of the century. That is, if you leave out a few irrelevant facts, such as drinking with straws out of milk cartons, and being led through the kitchen for our "Grand March." As awful as it sounds, these seem to be the fondest of memories.

But June came all too rapidly, and our Autumn year was drawing to a close. Time was nearing an end, and the Senior year, our final year, was in sight. Ecstasy reigned as our Junior year ended and we found ourselves intoxicated with the feeling of impending superiority.

Act IV

Scene: B.H.S.

Time: September 1967-June 1968

Dramatis Personae: Richard Dupre—President
Annemarie Vandervalk—Vice-President
Linda Kozak—Secretary
Frances Bardell—Treasurer

We enter—Seniors—and mature, (?).
Shy and timid? Nevermore.
Excelsior!

Curtain going up! United, for the last time. Things were happening just too fast. We hardly had a chance to turn around before we found ourselves delivering Thanksgiving baskets, watching a fantastic imitation of Mrs. Miller, giving Christmas parties for the Macy and South School children, and watching Mrs. Ferrelli blow out the candles on a lopsided Christmas cake.

But still another huge project was underway. The Angel of Mercy was not smiling on Miss Brisson when she found herself as Directress of the Senior Play, "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay" (and thank goodness they were). After two rehearsals we all faced the bitter truth—there simply were not that many Helen Hayeses in the Senior class. We shall always recall the voice of a certain director saying "Affection! More affection! And don't laugh this time."

Time was racing by, and there was no way to catch it. Four unreliveable years were passing before us with nothing but memories left. This was our Winter year, a year of ending. But our lives were not. The Class banded even closer together as the inevitable time of parting neared. And for the first time, it was with sadness that the curtain fell.

Act V

Scene: The Universe

Time: Future

Dramatis Personae: The Class of 1968

No longer see we any past;
Nothing more's in the looking-glass
Of times past.

Our fifth act is just beginning. But there is no way that we can read ahead in a play book to foresee the end of our play. Life from now on will not be charted on a map, for we shall navigate our own course. No longer do we have to do anything, but things are of our own choice. Will we choose wisely? Will our lives have meaning? Will we find our goal? None of us knows what fate or fortune has in store for us. Forty years from now we will look back in time and always find ourselves wondering "If"

But how will we know if we have found ourselves? Maybe it will be through the stars. At nightfall we can see a sky full of luminous heavenly objects. But as day breaks, many just seem to fade away. When we can still see our star in the daylight, we will know the true meaning of life.

So it should not be with sadness that we part, but, rather, with happiness and hope. Our high school days do not mark the end, but

The Beginning.

At the beginning of the year, members of the class sold Christmas candles, and from it made a profit of well over $1000. This money will mostly be used to defray the expenses incurred during the senior year. The class chose the Sheraton Biltmore's grand ballroom as the setting for their prom and the theme "The Impossible Dream" was decided on as the theme. The prom was held on Friday, May 17.

Sophomores

Mr. Cheever

Mr. Minichiello

The Class of 1970 has completed another successful year at B.H.S. Led by that highly capable quartet, Bradly Wong, Paul Hennessey, Betty Kelly and Diane Roy, the Sophomore Class has numbered among its activities a highly successful dance, a profitable raffle and has placed orders for their class rings. Now it is time for them to relinquish their position as Sophomores and look ahead to their exciting junior year. We feel that the school spirit and co-operative attitude that this class has shown will remain with them and be enhanced by them as they make this step.

The Freshman Class is well on its way to becoming another great class at BHS. Under the direction of Mr. Smith and Miss Greenhalgh, the class is already earning money by selling candy during basketball games. Best wishes to the Class of '71'.

ACTIVITIES

"OUR HEARTS WERE YOUNG AND GAY"

The participants in the play wish to thank Mr. Provost, Mr. Sullivan, Mr. Heron, Miss Greenhalgh, and Mrs. Turcotte for their help in presenting the Senior Class Play.

But special thanks, especially from the actors, must be given to our Directress, Miss Brisson. Without her untiring help, the play would not have been a success. She was willing to help whenever asked, although it got her into some ridiculous situations.

It is then with a special pride that we can now say, "Break a leg."

Newspaper

This year's Newspaper Staff, under the direction of Mr. Joseph Delellis, has worked diligently to achieve the high literary standard which represents the "Student Voice". Despite various setbacks, they have regularly printed material in such categories as sports, teacher interviews, gossip, advice to the love-lorn, etc. The co-operation and team spirit displayed by the entire staff has made this possible.

Standing: Charles Garceau (sports), Mr. Delellis (advisor), Michelle Masse and Estelle Hardy (co-editors). Seated: Mrs. Hannigan (advisor).

Miss Fontaine???

You Gotta Let Loose.

Mr. Mohan, Advisor

This year has seen the emergence of the Student Council as one of the most active organizations in school. They started the year with a dance in honor of the football team. The second annual Student Council Banquet was held at the Embassy Club in Woonsocket. This was followed closely by the annual Student Council Talent Show which turned out to be a big success. After returning from the Christmas recess the Council began to formulate plans for the Winter Carnival Semi-Formal. A handbook, which is one step towards the eventual accreditation of our school, was also started at this time. The National Shakespeare Company again performed and was enjoyed by a capacity crowd. The year finally came to a close with a swimming party for all the members.

FTA

The Future Teachers of America Association has many goals, but the most important one is to study, identify, and develop qualities, traits and aptitudes which are basic or related to successful teaching.

This year the club has tried to answer some of the student's questions concerning this profession by our teacher discussion panel. Other activities included the presentation of a basket of food to a needy family on Thanksgiving Day, selling candy at the basketball games, the teacher assistant program, and the observance of April as teaching career month.

FNA

The Future Nurses Association is designed to bring together all high school students with an interest in nursing as a career. This organization, besides providing information for students interested in the nursing profession, also sponsors a number of activities of benefit to the community. This year, the FNA sang Christmas carols at Woonsocket Hospital, distributed toys in the children's ward of that hospital and collected clothing from all the Bellingham schools to send to Appalachia. A great deal of praise and appreciation is owed to the club's advisors, Mrs. Turcotte and Mrs. Ferrelli, for the outstanding work they have done for the FNA:

Band

That Bellingham Blackhawk Marching Band in half-time salute.

That Blackhawk Marching Band, under the direction of Mr. Chamberlain, has proven to be one of the finest bands in the Southern Massachusetts area. In the short time that Mr. Chamberlain has been at BHS, he has transformed the band into the polished, pleasant sounding unit that it now is. Using a number of marching techniques popular in the Midwest, that Blackhawk Band completely outclassed every other band that it met during the past football season in its half-time shows. Mr. Chamberlain deserves our gratitude and admiration for the wonderful job he has done and the entire student body wishes him continued success during his years at Bellingham.

Reaching fantastic heights in music accomplishment, the concert and dance bands, under the direction of Mr. Allan Chamberlain, have become among the most popular organizations with the student body. They have provided us with entertainment during this past year at assemblies and pep rallies. Who can ever forget the swinging renditions of "Fever" in the gymnasium. All in all, the band has improved immeasurably under Mr. Chamberlain and have represented B.H.S. well throughout the year.

Three Cheers for Mrs. Horan

Beat 'em Boys.

If you ask almost any basketball or football player, he'll tell you that the cheers of a partisan crowd can urge him to play better than he normally would. The Bellingham Blackhawk Cheerleaders have done a great job during both the basketball and football seasons to arouse support for the boys on the field and on the court. Thanks to the expert tutelage and supervision of Mrs. Carol Horan, the squad is a well drilled, precision unit as well as a fine representative of the school.

FIRST VARSITY TEAM

The year 1967 marks the first time in over twenty years that a football team representing Bellingham High has competed on the varsity level. Although the team wasn't able to come up with a victory, they gained a great deal of experience—an important factor in a game as complex and demanding as football. But they tried hard and we are proud to have these boys represent BHS on the gridiron. A special word of appreciation to head coach George Anderson and his assistants: Mr. Lindsey, Mr. Rook and Mr. Gayer for a job well done.

Dennis McLaughlin was the offensive star for the Blackhawks in 1967 as he scored both of Bellingham's touchdowns. He, Al Dann, John Basile, and Les Hill were the workhorses of the backfield, taking the handoffs from quarterback Phil Skzrat.

The Blackhawk offensive line from end to end was made up by Mike Burgess, Charley Garceau, Keith Farrar, Danny Milette, Paul Croteau, Gene Wall, and Mike Allard. Prospects for next year appear much brighter since all of these players, with the exception of Mike Allard will return.

A special word of recognition goes to senior Mike Karakhian, our monstrous tackle, who suffered a serious knee injury and was sidelined for most of the year.

The function of a JV team is to give boys who are not quite ready for a varsity sport practical experience at a lower level of competition. Our young JV football team, although not winning many games, certainly gained this necessary experience. A number of boys showed promise for one day becoming full-fledged members of the varsity. Among these were Les Hill, a hard hitting fullback and linebacker, field goal kicker Louis Knustgraichen and freshman linemen Don Greeno and Steve Onorato.

X-Country

This year's Cross Country team has performed much better than expected. Coached by Mr. Paul Bourdon and captained by Dick Dupre, the team's most impressive victories were over Norton and Norfolk—powers in the Tri-Valley Conference. Great performances were turned in by Jim Hart throughout the season. Hart also placed fifth in the Conference Meet. Other stars were Cookie Helenius, Billy Fournier, Ken Heuklom and Ted Bennet.

The golf team, under the direction of Mr. Mohan, was formed just last year. Although it is still officially a club, it's ultimate goal is to enter varsity competition.

Swim Club

The swim club was also formed last year. Mr. Cadoret, the advisor, has obtained the facilities of the Woonsocket YMCA once a week and has got together a group of boys who enjoy swimming and want to continue the sport during the cold winter months.

Field Hockey

Due primarily to a lack of experience, the girls field hockey team wasn't able to come up with a victory this year. But since the girls on the team are almost exclusively eighth-graders or freshmen, Miss Woods expects that they will show a marked improvement next year and break into the victory column.

Diane Verhoest, Debbie Newcomb, Chris Spont and Jeannine Gaston were the stars of this year's squad, and Miss Verhoest was presented the MVP award at the Fall Sport's Awards Assembly.

For the first time ever, the team was invited to participate in the Southeastern Mass. Invitational Tournament. Even though the girls were not successful in their first game, high scorer Chris Spont was honored by being selected as a member of the tournament All-Star team.

Next year's squad will be without seniors Linda McDaniel, Arlene Biggs, Mary Ann Stratman, Frances Bardell and Jeanine Gaston, but they should enjoy a strong season anyway.

Track and Field

Last year's Track and Field team, made up of mostly underclassmen, was unable to win a meet in the Tri-Valley Conference. But this year, with boys like Ted Bennet and Cyril Crawly, who broke school records in the 220 and 100 yard dashes respectively, the team should fare much better. Other standout trackmen are Jim Hart and Cookie Helenius in the two mile and Harry Mains and Bob Ottavi in the mile and 880. Impressive showings in field events were turned in by Greg Graves in the shot-put and Bill Schmidt and Ed Gentes in the javelin throw.

Baseball

Bellingham High School dominated Tri-Valley Conference baseball circles last year as the Blackhawks nailed down their second straight championship. The team defeated Holliston High for the crown 2-1, behind the great pitching of Bob Dupre and the clutch hitting of Al Dann, who drove in both runs.

This year, Coach Roger Canestrari leads a well seasoned unit back into action. Only John Bikom and Bob Johnson, last year's co-captains, are missing due to graduation. The pitching staff will be made up of all juniors, as Dennis McLaughlin and Al Dann will return with Dupre to handle the mound chores. Defensively, standouts are Phil Skzrat, Don Galuza, George Lamarre, and Bradly Wong. Top hitters should prove to be co-captains Dick Dupre and Skip Hachey, Dann and Dave Karakhian.

Tennis

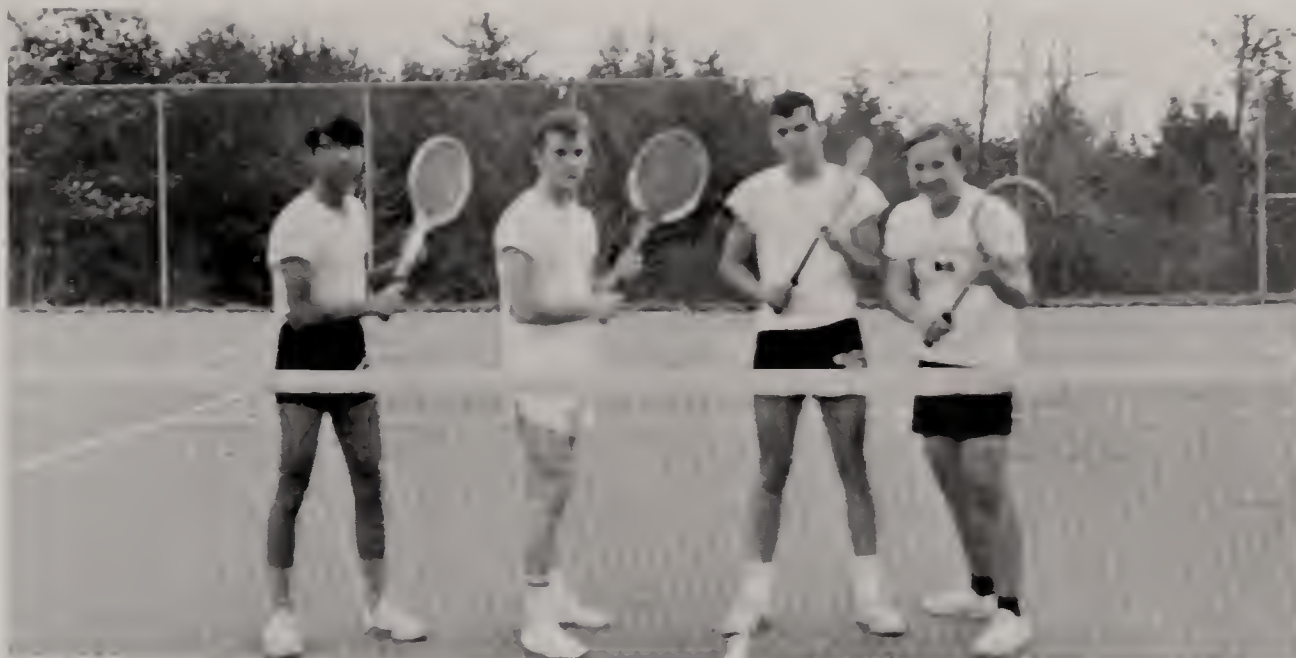

Coach Cheever gives some tips on the finer points of tennis to Guy Van Helden and Louis Knustgraichen.

Tennis is fast becoming one of the most popular sports at Bellingham High. Instituted as a varsity sport in league competition just last year, the tennis team captured second place honors in the Tri-Valley Conference. But the Bellingham tennis program doesn't stop there. Additional chances to play are found in Fall and Summer intramural leagues, to which any student in the high school may also join.

The varsity, co-captained by John Feenstra and Jim Creapeau, is stocked with seasoned performers. Among these are Don Demers, Rick Hammond, Ken Henderson, and Louis Knustgraichen. Promising underclassmen, who should continue the school's successful record are Mike Hachey, Guy Van Helden, Craig Keating and Arthur Knustgraichen.

Expecting to see plenty of action this spring are Arthur Knustgraichen, Ken Henderson, Don Demers and Steve Rostkowski.

One of the least appreciated, yet hardest working members of the Bellingham Athletic Department is Mr. James Cheever. This man has taken it upon himself to promote the game of tennis in the high school and has given boys, who don't care to participate in the major sports, a chance to compete on the varsity level. He not only coaches the varsity team in the spring, but has set up intramural leagues in the fall and summer and has taken many boys to indoor tennis courts during the winter. For these reasons, we offer our heartfelt thanks to Mr. Cheever, an extra special tennis coach.

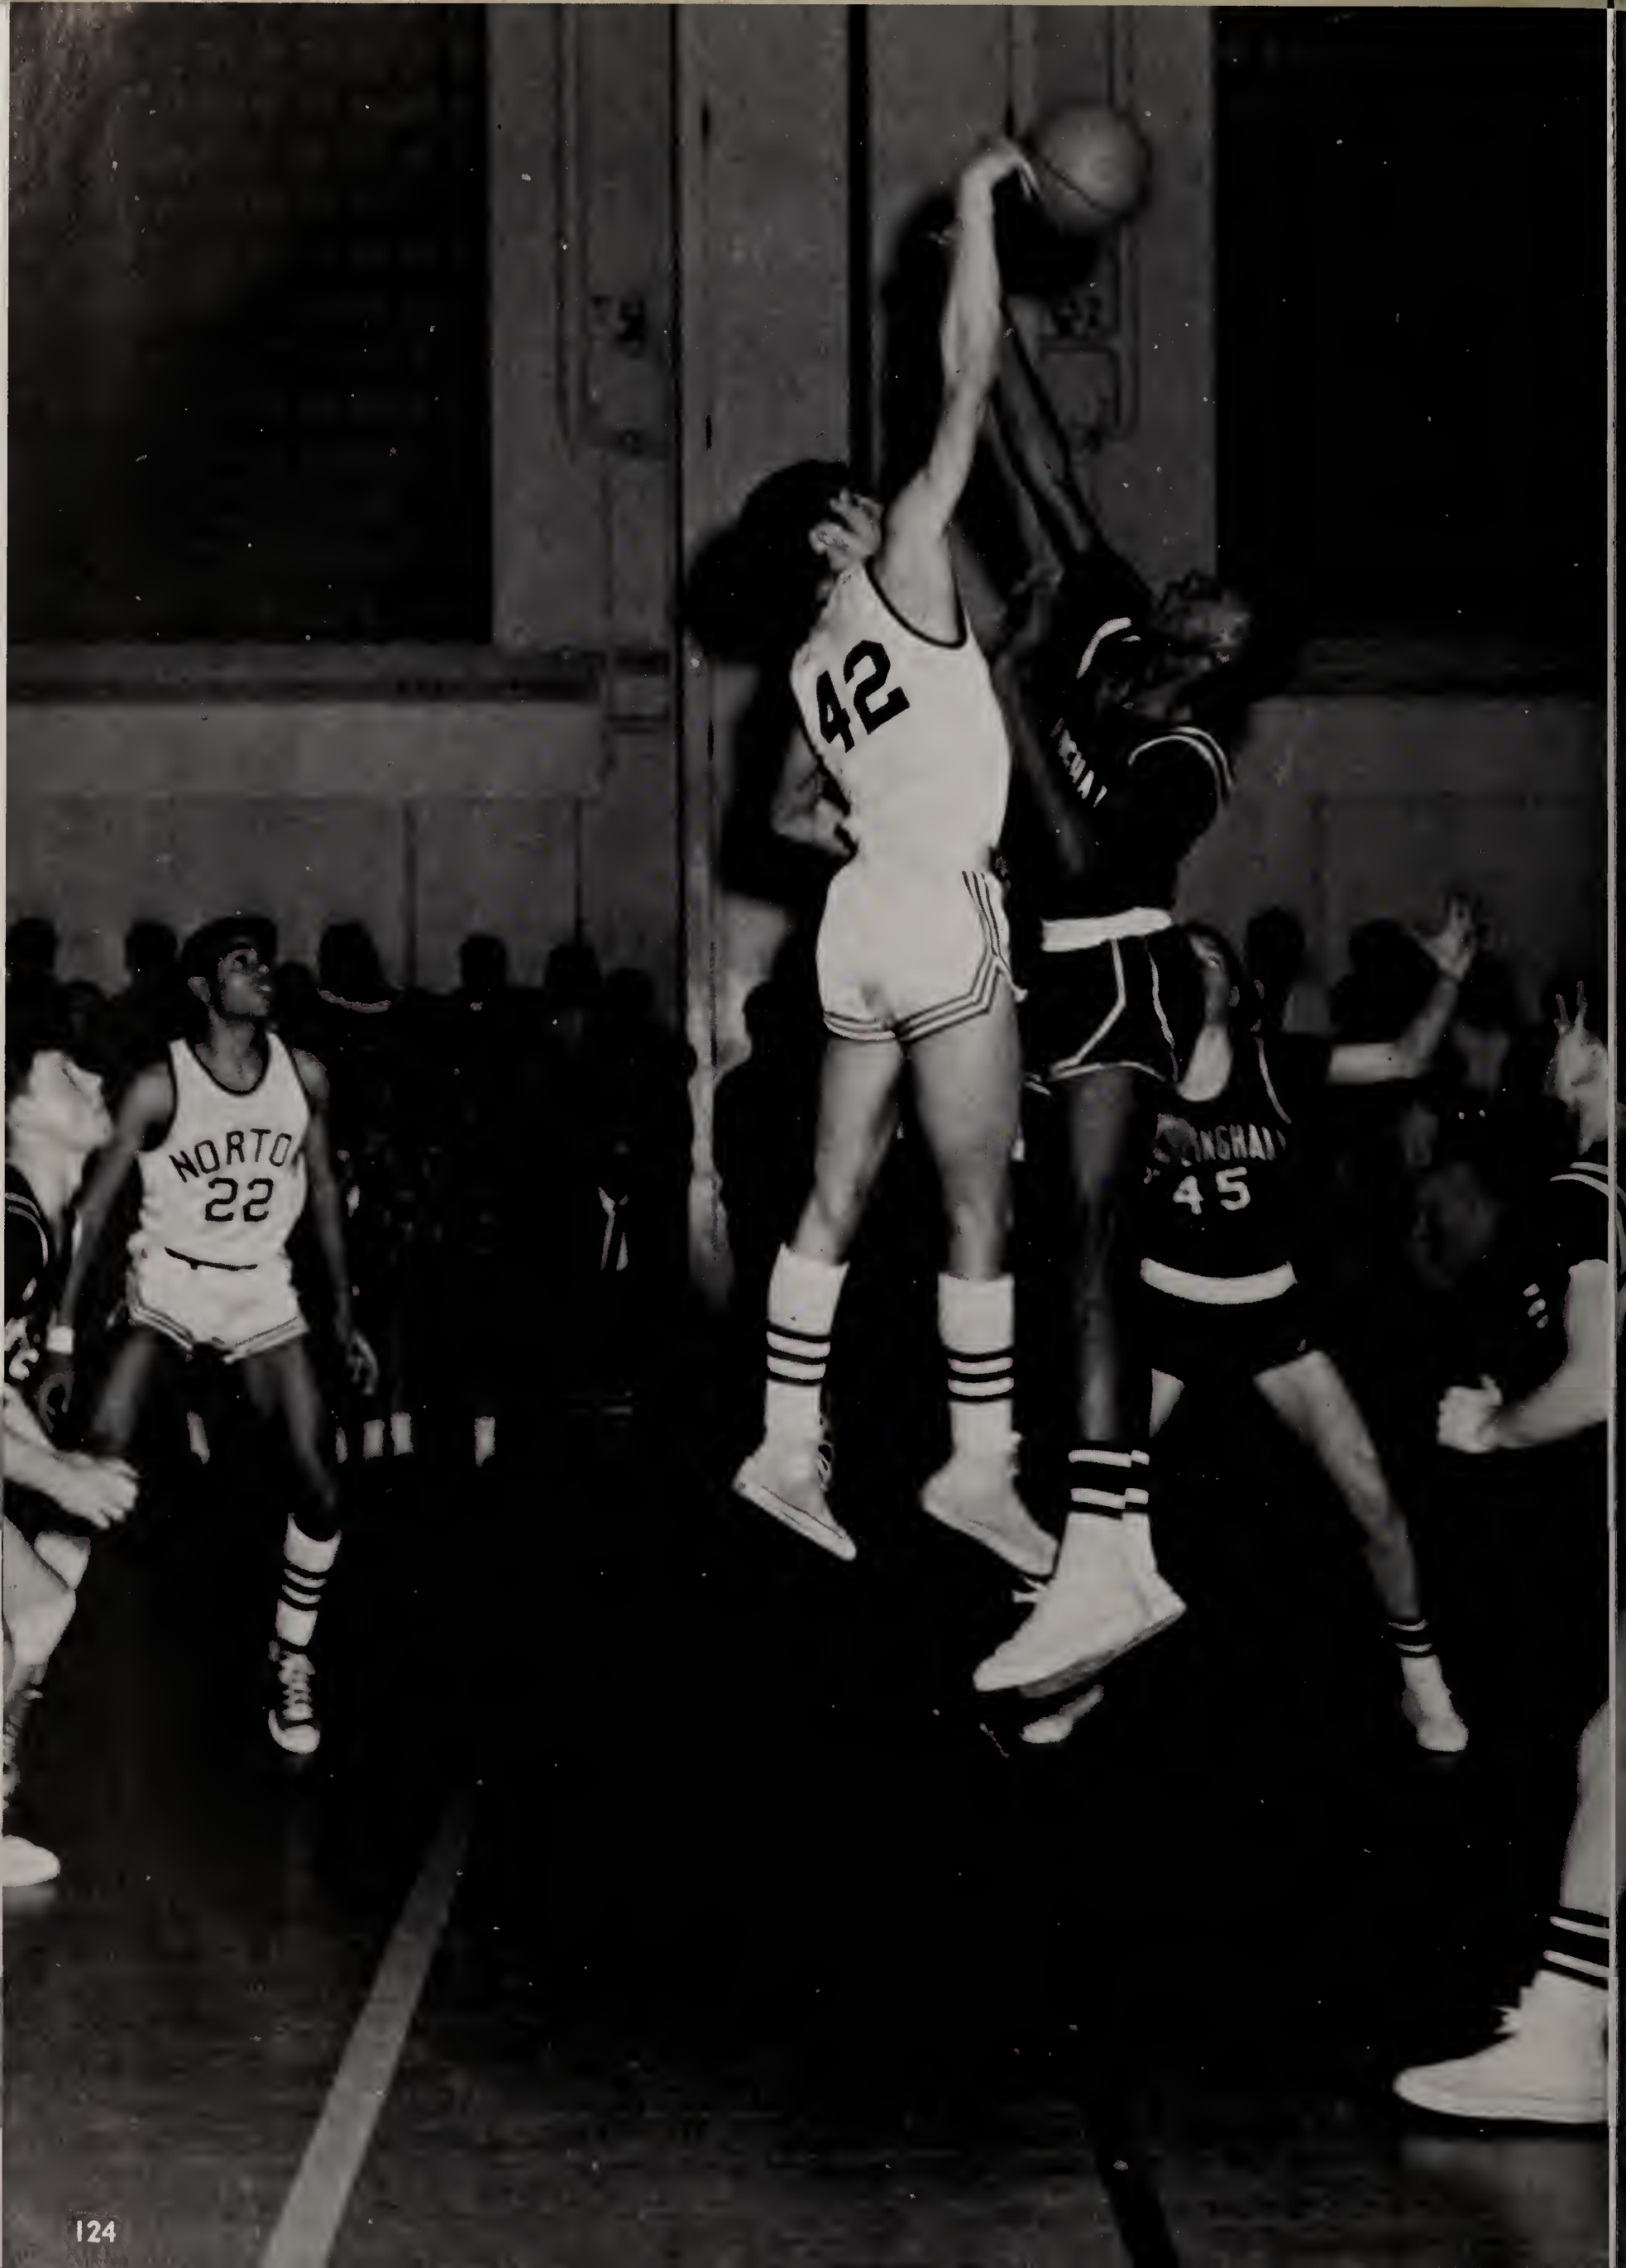

Demers and Henderson form a solid doubles combination.

1968 co-captains: Jim Creapeau and John Feenstra.

Two promising freshmen are Craig Keating and Mike Hachey.

Basketball

The year that almost was! For the Bellingham Blackhawks that year was 1968 as a defeat in the next-to-last game of the season to Nipmuc ended all hopes of a championship in basketball. But the Blackhawk's record of 15 victories and 4 defeats was good enough for a second consecutive third place finish in the Tri-Valley Conference, and selection as one of eight teams to compete in the Tri Area Basketball Tournament at Nichols College.

The 1968 edition of the Blackhawks was largely a veteran aggregation with seven seniors, three of them starters, on the squad. These three, co-captains Skip Hachey and Dick Dupre and Butch Fleury did the jobs expected of them during the season. But a primary factor in the success of the Blackhawks this year was the steady improvement of Phil Skzrat and Bob McDaniels at forward and center respectively. These two gave the team the strength underneath the boards which it has usually lacked in previous seasons. The fact that these two are also underclassmen and still growing, indicates that seasons fat with victories lie ahead for B.H.S.

Of course, five men don't make up a squad. Among the members of the second team were Dick Galuza, Jim Creapeau, and Mike Burgess, who were spot starters, seniors George Lamarre and Paul Bokoski, juniors Don Galuza, Don Demers and Butch Boulay and sophomores Peter Martel and Bradly Wong.

Co-captains Dick Dupre and Skip Hachey hold the Flynn Memorial Trophy as Coach Canestrari and the rest of the team look on, after defeating Blackstone.

JUNIOR VARSITY

Coach Andy Trudeau's junior varsity contingent enjoyed a fine 9-7 record this season. The team was sparked by the play of two sophomore guards, Peter Martel and Bradly Wong, who also saw service with the varsity. Despite the loss, due to graduation, of seven seniors from this years varsity squad, the steady improvement of these two plus that of Larry Minnis, a six-foot plus center, and a sharp shooting freshman named Rex McGough would seem to insure Bellingham's usual high position in the Tri-Valley Conference standings for years to come.
